Nicolás Reyes is a recognized leadership consultant with a 25+ year´s corporate experience. He is a speaker, author and consultant on topics related to human talent development and strategic planning.

His experience of more than 25 years in the corporate world, 10 as a consultant and entrepreneur, and his understanding of the current business environment, led him to develop the VUCAA SUPRASKILLS Model, which proposes the development and focus on four groups of competences that leaders and organizations must work intentionally to meet the challenges of today's environment: volatile, uncertain, complex, ambiguous, which requires agility.

Nicolás Reyes has given more than 2,000 keynote hours in Colombia, Mexico, Central America and South America, impacting around 120,000 people. Considered one of the three top speakers on leadership and motivation in Colombia and Mexico by international bureaus, he has shared stage with Doug Lipp from Disney University, David Robertson from Lego, Mark Randolph from Netflix and Porter Erisman from Alibaba.

In his keynotes, Nicolás creates an atmosphere of inspiring reflection with a disruptive and questioning style. Supported by real business stories, best practices, his learned lessons and his experience, he emphasizes on leadership concepts that are not learned in academia but are acquired through the experience of corporate life.

Author of the books ”Compórtate Como un Animal", "Selectable" and "The Skills of Selectable People". “Compórtate Como un Animal”, published by Penguin Random House, was best-seller in the management and leadership category in Colombia during 2020.

Nicolas is a great Storyteller. Although his successful experience in one of the most well known companies in the world (Microsoft), he never lost the perspective of seeking inside the human been behind every great leader. After years of research and understanding, he found greatness as de common factor. "In the pursuit for excellence I asked an executive, what is the secret to win over people? And he answered: Behave like an animal.

Nicolas Reyes found a way to realize his dream by bringing Dale Carnegie Training to Latin America, an organization with an experience of over one hundred years, in performance though interpersonal relationships, effective communication and attitude.
