She has been named at the top of world's 20 best speakers on AI, alongside others including Sam Altman (Open AI), Demis Hassabis (Google Deepmind) and Geoffrey Hinton (The 'Godfather of AI.' She is also recognized as a LinkedIn 'Top Voice' on AI.

Nina argues that AI is fundamentally about power and people. She analyses what it means to lead in the Age of AI, examining how AI will transform business, geopolitics, and humanity.

Nina was among the first to identify AI as a 'tipping point for humanity.' She articulated this vision years before ChatGPT made AI a global phenomenon.

An advocate of responsible AI development, Nina is the Founder of Tamang Ventures, working exclusively with companies at the frontier of AI development. She is proud to advise Synthesia, the world's first video-generation platform, and Truepic, the global leader in authentication technologies.

She has collaborated with some of the world's premier companies and organizations, including Microsoft, Adobe, DARPA, and the UN. Her book, 'DEEPFAKES' (2020), was the first to examine Generative AI's broader impact on society.

A renowned public speaker, Nina has appeared on stages including CES, TEDx, CogX, and WebSummit. She regularly appears on worldwide media and has been featured in publications such as MIT Tech Review, WIRED, and Time. She has engaged in dialogues with global thought leaders like Sam Harris, Christiane Amanpour, and Andrew Yang.

In tandem with her speaking and advisory roles, Nina has cultivated a robust AI community, boasting over 100k members through her content channels.

With over two decades of geopolitical experience, Nina has long been focused on macro-trends for society. She has advised global leaders, including Joe Biden, the President of the United States, and Anders Fogh Rasmussen, the former Secretary General of NATO.

Nina speaks seven languages and calls London, Berlin, and Kathmandu home.
