HiCue speakers
Higher Content & Inspiration

MARK GREEN

Former U.S. Ambassador and Congressman, global development leader shaping international policy and humanitarian impact

---

- Former Administrator of USAID, U.S. Ambassador to Tanzania, Board Member of both the US Development Finance Corporation and Millennium Challenge Corporation
- President Emeritus of the Wilson Center, a leading global policy forum
- Champion of democratic governance, global health, and humanitarian innovation
- Key advisor on U.S. foreign policy, sustainable development strategy, and public-private partnerships
- Thought leader on global resilience, diplomacy, and American leadership in a shifting world order

---

Ambassador Mark A. Green is a distinguished American diplomat and global development expert with decades of leadership across government, diplomacy, and international policy. He most recently served as President and CEO of the Wilson Center, one of the world's most respected policy forums for tackling global challenges through research and dialogue.

Green previously served as Administrator of the U.S. Agency for International Development (USAID), where he led America's efforts to deliver humanitarian assistance, strengthen democratic institutions, and advance public health around the world. He was U.S. Ambassador to Tanzania under President George W. Bush and also served four terms in the U.S. House of Representatives, representing Wisconsin.

Ambassador Green has been instrumental in designing and championing bipartisan initiatives in global development, including the President's Malaria Initiative and the Millennium Challenge Corporation. As a trusted voice in foreign policy, he has focused on empowering local leadership, fostering public-private partnerships, and enhancing America's role in supporting democratic values and institutions worldwide.

A compelling speaker and seasoned negotiator, Green offers audiences a rare insider perspective on how diplomacy, development, and strategic leadership intersect to shape global outcomes. His experience spans the boardrooms of Washington to field missions in Africa, Asia, and Latin America—making him uniquely positioned to address today's most pressing geopolitical and humanitarian issues.

TEMAS

Ambassador Green tailors each presentation to the needs of his audience and is not limited to the topics listed below. Please ask us about any subject that interests you:

- The Future of U.S. Foreign Aid and Global Development
- Democracy, Diplomacy, and American Leadership
- Public-Private Partnerships in International Development
- Global Health and Humanitarian Innovation

- Resilience in Fragile States and Conflict Zones
- Development Policy
- Democracy and Human Rights
- Africa
- American Global Engagement and Leadership

PROGRAMAS

Rethinking Aid: Building Resilient Partnerships for a New Global Era

Ambassador Green explores how U.S. foreign assistance must evolve to empower local leaders, foster innovation, and navigate an increasingly multipolar world.

Democracy at a Crossroads: U.S. Leadership in a Time of Global Challenge

A timely reflection on America's role in defending democratic values and institutions amid rising authoritarianism and political polarization.

The Power of Purpose: Diplomacy, Development, and the Human Connection

Drawing from frontline experiences, Green illustrates how international cooperation and American leadership can drive meaningful change in the world's most vulnerable regions.

PUBLICACIONES

Artículos

An American Approach to Foreign Assistance
Foreword: When Goods Cross Borders

CONDICIONES

- Travels from: Washington D.C., USA
- Fee Range: Please Inquire